Intro

It is theorized that the station's messages are broadcasted in a compressed format that creates the distorted sound.

Evidence suggests that Lincolnshire Poacher began operating in the 1970s and was transmitted from the island of Cyprus.

The station is believed to have been maintained and operated by MI6, the British Intelligence Service, until 2008.

1. THE BUZZER MDZHB

The voices are thought to relay secret orders for military units who decrypt the messages via codebooks kept in a safe.
